The Mike Eruzione Celebrity Classic benefits the Cool Kids Campaign and Winthrop Charities.

The Cool Kids Campaign's mission is devoted to improving the quality of life for pediatric oncology patients and their families by focusing on the academic, social, and emotional needs brought on by a cancer diagnosis.

Since their inception, Cool Kids has been reminded every day that kids have only one chance at childhood. Through their free programs, they strive for the most direct impact on serving kids with cancer. The Cool Kids Clubhouses address the academic, social and emotional needs for kids and their families. Their programs, such as care packages, caregiver support groups, Cool Kids Connection newspaper, weekend camp, online tutoring, and smile celebrations, all work to keep pieces of childhood intact.

Winthrop Charities provides financial assistance to those in need in and around Boston. For many years, children and many organizations have benefited from the generous support of Winthrop Charities.

MEET YOUR HOST MIKE ERUZIONE

Mike Eruzione is an American former ice hockey player. Eruzione was born on October 25, 1954, to an Italian-American family in Winthrop, Massachusetts.

He is best known as the captain of the 1980 Winter Olympics United States national team that defeated the Soviet Union in the famous "Miracle on Ice" game, in which he scored the game-winning goal.

Eruzione attended Boston University. While at Boston, he averaged over twenty goals a season for four years. He was captain of his team and is the 4th all-time leading scorer in Boston University history.

Eruzione also played for Team USA at the 1975 and 1976 Ice Hockey World Championship tournaments. He then spent two seasons with the Toledo Goaldiggers of the International Hockey League, and was named the Rookie of the Year in 1978. He led the team to the Turner Cup championship in that year. After his second year in Toledo, Eruzione was named the Captain of the 1980 Olympic hockey team. Playing Forward, he scored the winning goal against the Soviets and helped the Americans win the Gold medal against Finland. Eruzione's winning goal against the Soviet Union has become one of the most played highlights in American sports and was voted the greatest highlight of all time by ESPN viewers in March 2008.
