The Dwight Clark Memorial Classic benefits the Cool Kids Campaign and the ALS Association.

The Cool Kids Campaign's mission is devoted to improving the quality of life for pediatric oncology patients and their families by focusing on the academic, social, and emotional needs brought on by a cancer diagnosis.

Through free programs offered by Cool Kids Campaign, they strive for the most direct impact on serving kids with cancer. Their programs such as care packages, caregiver support groups, Cool Kids Connection newspaper, weekend camp, online tutoring, and smile celebrations, all work to keep pieces of their childhood intact.

The mission of ALS United North Carolina is to support and empower the NC ALS community through a collaborative approach to fostering bold research initiatives, advancing advocacy, and providing comprehensive care to individuals and families affected by ALS.

ABOUT DWIGHT CLARK

Dwight Clark was a National Football Player (NFL); he played for the San Francisco 49ers from 1979 to 1987 winning two Super Bowls.

Dwight is best known for making one of the most iconic catches, known as "The Catch", during the 1981 NFC Championship game.

After his football career, he remained with the organization as a team executive until 1998.

Dwight was born in Kinston, North Carolina and graduated high school from Garinger High School in Charlotte. While in high school Dwight played quarterback. After high school, he accepted a scholarship to play college football for Clemson University.

While at Clemson, Dwight was moved to wide receiver. In 1988, he was inducted into the Clemson Hall of Fame.
